

COURSE STRUCTURE

Levels	Hours	Grade	Content
Advanced	120	109 108 107	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This level emphasizes overall reading comprehension, advanced writing skills, translation techniques and continued vocabulary acquisition. In addition to texts introduced for class work and home study, course material may also reflect the individual needs and interests of the advanced student.</li> <li>Students who successfully complete this level should possess Arabic skills acceptable for academic or professional use.</li> </ul>
Intermediate	120	106 105 104	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This level emphasizes techniques for reading, research and composition in Arabic, as well as advanced conversational skills.</li> <li>Audio-visual and published materials are introduced to reinforce listening and reading comprehension. Students gain increased confidence in grammar and syntax and concentrate on expanding their vocabulary base.</li> <li>At the end of this level, students should be able to speak, read and write confidently on various subjects, including: politics, religion, economics and culture.</li> </ul>
Basic	120	103 102 101	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Learn to read and write using Arabic alphabets and acquire the skills needed to conduct simple conversations concerning daily needs.</li> <li>Students begin building a vocabulary base and are introduced to basic grammar and syntax structures.</li> <li>At the end of this level, students should be able to satisfy routine social demands and limited work requirements.</li> </ul>
Foundation	10	100	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>This is a short 10 hours preparatory course. It is for those students who do not have any background in Arabic language. This program provides the basic necessary foundational knowledge needed to begin first grade.</li> </ul>